

Detectorists

Johnny Flynn 2014

(Key C; First 3 notes sung: c d e)

Intro

[C] [C] [G] [Am] / [C] [G] [Am]

Will you [C] search through the lonely earth for me,
[F] Climb through the brier and [C] bramble?
I'll be your [G] treasure.
I felt the [Am] touch of the [C] kings and the [Am] breath of the [C] wind.
I knew the [Am] call of all the [C] song birds
They [Am] sang all the [C] wrong [G] words.
I'm waiting [Am] for you. I'm waiting for [C] you.

Interlude:

[Am] hm mm [G] mm mm [F] hm mm
[Am] hm mm [G] mm mm [F] hm mm

Will you [C] swim through the briny sea for me,
[F] Roll along the ocean's [C] floor?
I'll be your [G] treasure.
I'm with the [Am] ghost of the [C] men who can [Am] never sing [C] again.
There's a [Am] place, follow [C] me
Where a [Am] love lost at [C] sea [G]
Is waiting [Am] for you, is waiting for [C] you.

Interlude:

[Am] hm mm [G] mm mm [F] hm mm
[Am] hm mm [G] mm mm [F] hm mm

Would you [C] drift o'er the rolling fields for me,

[F] Hold me in the highest [C] bough?
I'll be your [G] treasure.
But in [Am] history's [C] rhyme
there's a [Am] place and a [C] time
And a [Am] truth to the [C] goal
That the [Am] polls cannot [C] hold [G].
I'm waiting [Am] for you. I'm waiting for [C] you.