Ted Hawkins, 1982

Key of F

Verse:

[F] Good morning, my darling, I'm telling you this
[F] to let you know that I'm [Bb] sorry you're [F] sick
[F] Though tears of sorrow won't do you no good,
[F] I'd be your doctor if [Bb] only I [F] could.

Chorus:

[F] What do want from the liquor store?
[Bb] Something [F] sour or [Bb] something [F] sweet?
[F] I'll buy all that your belly can [Bb] hold.
[F] You can be sure you won't [Bb] suffer no [F] more.

[F] I'd swim the ocean or the deepest canal
[F] to get to you darling just to [Bb] make you [F] well.
[F] There's no place on Earth that I wouldn't [Bb] hasten to [F] go
[F] to cool the fever; this I [Bb] want you to [F] know.

[F] What do want from the liquor store?
[Bb] Something [F] sour or [Bb] something [F] sweet?
[F] I'll buy all that your belly can [Bb] hold.
[F] You can be sure you won't [Bb] suffer no [F] more.

[F] If only the doctor would hurry and show
[F] there's quite a few places I [Bb] know we could [F] go.
[F] I was OK but these words from you
[F] stating you're sick made [Bb] me sick, [F] too.

[F] What do want from the liquor store?
[Bb] Something [F] sour or [Bb] something [F] sweet?
[F] I'll buy all that your belly can [Bb] hold.
[F] You can be sure you won't [Bb] suffer no [F] more.
[F] You can be sure you won't [Bb] suffer no [F] more.

[F]take a good rest I won't pro-[Bb]long the [F]flight
