

Barrier Reef

Old 97's

[C]

The [C]Empty Bottle was half empty, tide was low and I was thirsty

[F]Saw her sittin' at the bar, well you know how some girls are

[C]Always makin' eyes, well she [G]wasn't makin' [F]eyes

So I[C] sidled up beside her, settled down and shouted, "Hi there"

"My name's [F]Stewart Ransom Miller, I'm a serial lady-killer."

She said, "[C]I'm already dead," that's ex[G]actly what she [F]said

So we [C]tripped the lights fantastic, we was both made of elastic

[F]Midnight came and midnight went, 'n I thought I was the President

She said, "[C]Do you have a car," and I said, [G]"Do I have a c[F]ar?"

What's so [G]great about the Barrier [C]Reef?

What's so [G]fine about [C]art? Yeah!

What's so [F]good about a Good Times [C]Van

When you're [G]workin' on a broken, [G7]workin' on a broken

[F]Workin' on a broken [C]man?

When you're [G]workin' on a broken, [G7]workin' on a broken

[F]Workin' on a broken [C]man?

[G] [C] [G] [C] [F] [C] [G] [F] [C]

[C] My heart wasn't in it, not for one single minute

[F]I went through the motions with her. Her on top and me on liquor

[C]Didn't do no good, well I [G]didn't think it [F]would
