

You're Welcome, Willie Stewart

Robert Burns 1791-1795

Instrumental:

[C] You're welcome, Willie [Dm] Stewart,

Chorus:

[C] You're welcome, Willie [Dm] Stewart,
You're [C] welcome, Willie [Dm] Stewart,
There's [C] ne'er a flower that [Dm] blooms in May,
That's [F] half sae [G] welcome's [C] thou art!

Verse 1:

[C] Come, bumpers high, ex-[G] -press your joy,
The [C] bowl we must re-[G] -new it,
The [C] tappit-hen, gae [G] bring her ben,
To [F] welcome [G] Willie [C] Stewart

Chorus:

[C] You're welcome, Willie [Dm] Stewart,
You're [C] welcome, Willie [Dm] Stewart,
There's [C] ne'er a flower that [Dm] blooms in May,
That's [F] half sae [G] welcome's [C] thou art!

Verse 2:

Though [C] foes be strong, and [G] friends be slack
Their [C] action, must they [G] rue it,
May [C] woman on him [G] turn her back
That [F] wrangs thee, [G] Willie [C] Stewart,

Chorus:

[C] You're welcome, Willie [Dm] Stewart,
You're [C] welcome, Willie [Dm] Stewart,
There's [C] ne'er a flower that [Dm] blooms in May,

That's [F] half sae [G] welcome's [C] thou art!

Verse 3:

A [C] flower, it grows, it [G] fades, it falls
And [C] nature cannot re-[G] -new it,
But [C] worth and truth, e-[G] -ternal youth,
We'll [F] give to [G] Willie [C] Stewart

Instrumental chorus

[C] You're welcome, Willie [Dm] Stewart,
You're [C] welcome, Willie [Dm] Stewart,
There's [C] ne'er a flower that [Dm] blooms in May,
That's [F] half sae [G] welcome's [C] thou art!

Verse 4:

[C] May she whose arms en-[G] fold thy charms
Pos-[C] -sess a loyal and [G] true heart
To [C] her be given, to [G] ken the heaven
She [F] holds in [G] Willie [C] Stewart.

Chorus:

[C] You're welcome, Willie [Dm] Stewart,
You're [C] welcome, Willie [Dm] Stewart,
There's [C] ne'er a flower that [Dm] blooms in May,
That's [F] half sae [G] welcome's [C] thou art!

(tappit-hen = a quart measure of whiskey usually served in a ben = bowl with a lid)

(sae=so)

(gae=go)

(wrangs=wrongs)

(ken = know)