[C] [F] [G] [C] [C]

[C] Early Thursday [F] morning we [G] finally got the [C] news
We [Am] all went home that [G] evening [F] with the Clinchfield blues [F]

They [C] say they'll pay the [F] wages for anoth [G] er sixty [C] days then we're [Dm] on our own with what [F] ever we have [G] saved [G]

It's been a [C] hundred and ten [F] years...
[G] over night it's [C] gone
Some [Am] say they felt the [G] changes [F] coming all along [F]

[C] Yesterday at [F] three o'clock I [G] heard the whistle [C] blow On the [Dm] last loco [F] motive of the [G] CC and [C] O... [C]

[A#] Folks are gonna [F] move on but [F] all that will re [G] main....
[G] Are the [C] tracks that run right [F] through the railroad [Dm] town without a [C] train [F] [G] [C]

George L [C] Carter [C] laid the [F] tracks so [G] he could haul the [C] coal from the [Am] mountains of [G] Virginia
To the [F] Carolina [F] coast

They [F] built the [C] town around the [F] railroad yard, the [G] switches and the [C] signs I grew up [Dm] listening to the the [F] music of the [G] rattle and the [G] grind

Now you'll [C] never know the [F] railroad [G] ever came through [C] here Soon the [Am] weeds will grow so [G] tall the [F] tracks will disap [F] pear

[C] When my [C] son is [F] old enough one [G] day I will expl [C] ain why we [Dm] live in an [F] other railroad [G] town without a [C] train [C]

[A#] Folks are gonna [F] move on but [Dm] all that will re [G] main....
[G] Are the [C] tracks that run right [F] through a railroad [Dm] town without a [C] train
