

REMEMBER THE ALAMO

Jane Bowers

Instrumental Intro:

[C] A hundred and [G] eighty were [C] challenged by [G] Travis to [C] die

Verse 1:

[C] A hundred and [G] eighty were [C] challenged by [G] Travis to [C] die
By the line that he [G] drew with his [C] sword when the [G] battle was [C] high
The [F] man who will fight to the [C] death cross over, but [G7] he would live better [C] fly
Over the [G] line went a [C] hundred and [G] seventy [C] nine

Chorus:

[F] Aye-yip Santa Anna, we're killin' your soldiers be-[C]-low
That [G7] men wherever they [C] go [G] will remember the [C] Alamo

Verse 2:

[C] Though Bowie lay [G] dyin', his [C] powder was [G] ready and [C] dry
From flat on his [G] back Bowie [C] killed him a [G] few in re-[C]-ply
And [F] brave Davy Crockett was [C] singin' and laughin'
with [G7] gallantry fierce in his [C] eye
For God and for [G] freedom a [C] man more than [G] willin' to [C] die

Chorus:

[F] Aye-yip Santa Anna, we're killin' your soldiers be-[C]-low
That [G7] men wherever they [C] go [G] will remember the [C] Alamo

Instrumental Break, Verse:

[C] Though Bowie lay [G] dyin', his [C] powder was [G] ready and [C] dry
From flat on his [G] back Bowie [C] killed him a [G] few in re-[C]-ply
And [F] brave Davy Crockett was [C] singin' and laughin'
with [G7] gallantry fierce in his [C] eye
For God and for [G] freedom a [C] man more than [G] willin' to [C] die

Verse 3:

[C] They sent a young [G] scout from the [C] battlements [G] bloody and [C] lo
With words of fare-[G]-well from a [C] garrison [G] valiant and [C] proud Don't [F] grieve little darlin' my [C] dyin' if [G7] Texas is sovereign and [C] free
We'll never sur-[G]-render and [C] ever with [G] liberty [C] be

Chorus:

[F] Aye-yip Santa Anna, we're killin' your soldiers be-[C]-low
That [G7] men wherever they [C] go [G] will remember the [C] Alamo

Instrumental Chorus:

[F] Aye-yip Santa Anna, we're killin' your soldiers be-[C]-low
That [G7] men wherever they [C] go [G] will remember the [C] Alamo
