

Water is Wide, The

writer unknown

[C][G] The water is wide, [F][Dm] I can't cross [C][G] o'er,
nor do I [Am][Em] have [F][Dm] light wings to [G][Em] fly.
Build me a [Em][G] boat that can carry [Am][Em] two, [F][Dm]
and both shall [C][G] row, [G][Em] my love and [C][G] I.

A ship there [C][G] is, [F][Dm] and sails the [C][G] sea, she's loaded [Am][Em] deep, [F][Dm] as deep can [G][Em] be,
But not so [Em][G] deep as the love I'm [Am][Em] in, [F][Dm]
and I know not [C][G] how [G][Em] I sink or [C][G] swim.

When love is [C][G] young, [F][Dm] and love is [C][G] fine, it's like a [Am][Em] gem [F][Dm] when first it's [G][Em] new.
But love grows [Em][G] old and waxes [Am][Em] cold, [F][Dm] and fades a [C][G] way [G][Em] like the morning [C][G] dew.

instrumental

[C][G] The water is wide, [F][Dm] I can't cross [C][G] o'er,
nor do I [Am][Em] have [F][Dm] light wings to [G][Em] fly.
Build me a [Em][G] boat that can carry [Am][Em] two, [F][Dm]
and both shall [C][G] row, [G][Em] my love and [C][G] I.

[C][G] The water is wide, [F][Dm] I can't cross [C][G] o'er,
nor do I [Am][Em] have [F][Dm] light wings to [G][Em] fly.
Build me a [Em][G] boat that can carry [Am][Em] two, [F][Dm]
and both shall [C][G] row, [G][Em] my love and [C][G] I.