

EcoPackrat

Mary Jane Ford    March 27, 2008

Instrumental Intro: [D] [D] [D] [D]

Verse 1:

[D] He was a [A] dumpster [D] diver [D] [D]

A bare [A] bones sur [D] vivor; [D] [D]

[D] He had no [A] credit cards, lived [G] under the radar.

[G] He was a [A] dumpster [D] diver. [D] [D]

Instrumental break last 2 lines verse:

[D] He had no [A] credit cards, lived [G] under the radar.

[G] He was a [A] dumpster [D] diver. [D] [D]

Verse 2:

[D] He wore a [A] shaggy [D] white beard. [D] [D]

Sometimes with [A] scissors [D] he sheared. [D] [D]

[D] He wouldn't [A] waste the blades, or the [G] time to shave.

[G] He wore a [A] shaggy [D] white beard. [D] [D]

Chorus 1:

[D] He thought re [A] use is better than re [D] cycling

Because re[A] cycling is throwing it a [D] way.

[D] So be[A] hind the tarps in [G] his backyard

[G] The [A] heaps of booty [D] stay. [D] [D] [D]

Verse 3:

[D] He could turn [A] trash to [D] treasure. [D] [D]

It was his [A] utmost [D] pleasure. [D] [D]

[D] To find a [A] brand new owner, be the [G] saintly donor:

[G] Turned his [A] trash to [D] treasure. [D] [D]

Instrumental break last 2 lines verse:

[D] To find a [A] brand new owner, be the [G] saintly donor:

[G] Turned his [A] trash to [D] treasure. [D] [D]

Verse 4:

[D] He was an [A] eco- [D] packrat [D] [D]

In his [A] junkyard [D] habitat. [D] [D]

[D] His house was [A] filled with stuff; he couldn't [G] get enough.

[G] He was an [A] eco- [D] packrat. [D] [D]

Chorus 2:

[D] So [A] saving objects [D] from the dump

Was the [A] goal to which he [D] strived,

[D] But [A] he has garnered [G] such success,

It's [A] buried him a [D] live. [D]

Instrumental Tag-verse :

[D] He was an [A] eco- [D] packrat [D] [D]

In his [A] junkyard [D] habitat. [D] [D]

[D] His house was [A] filled with stuff; he couldn't [G] get enough.

[G] He was an [A] eco- [D] packrat. [D] [D] [D] hold