

Across the Great Divide

Kate Wolf

key: G

1st note D

Verse 1

[G] I've been walkin' [C] in my [G] sleep, countin' [Em] troubles 'stead of countin' [C] sheep.
Where the [G] years went, I can't [Em] say.
I just [C] turned around [D] and they've gone a- [G] -way.

Chorus

[G] They've gone away, in [C] yester- [G] -day,
and I [Em] find myself on the mountain [C] side,
Where the [G] rivers [C] change di- [G] -rections
a- [D] -cross the Great Di- [G] -vide.

Verse 2

[G] And I've been siftin' [C] through the [G] layers of dusty [Em] books and faded [C] papers.
They tell a [G] story I used to [Em] know.
It was one that [C] happened [D] so long a- [G] -go.

Chorus

[G] It's gone away, in [C] yester- [G] -day,
and I [Em] find myself on the mountain [C] side,
Where the [G] rivers [C] change di- [G] -rections
a- [D] -cross the Great Di- [G] -vide.

Verse 3

Well, I [G] heard the [C] owl [G] callin', softly [Em] as the night was [C] fallin',
With a [G] question and I re- [Em] -plied,

but he's [C] gone a- [D] -cross the border- [G] line.

Chorus

[G] He's gone away, in [C] yester- [G] -day,
and I [Em] find myself on the mountain [C] side,
Where the [G] rivers [C] change di- [G] -rections
a- [D] -cross the Great Di- [G] -vide.

Verse 4

The finest [G] hour that [C] I have [G] seen is the [Em] one that comes be- [C] -tween The edge of [G] night and the break of [Em] day, when the [C] darkness [D] rolls a- [G] -way.

Chorus

[G] It's gone away, in [C] yester- [G] -day,
and I [Em] find myself on the mountain [C] side,
Where the [G] rivers [C] change di- [G] -rections
a- [D] -cross the Great Di- [G] -vide.
