Fairy Tale of New York

The Pogues (S. McGowan, J. Finer)

Instrumental Chorus:

The [D] boys of the NY [F#m] PD [E7] choir were [A] singing Galway [F#m] Bay And the [A] bells were [D] ringing [E7] out for Christmas [A] Day. [E7]

Part 1a

[E7] It was Christmas [A] Eve babe, in the [D] drunk tank
An old man [A] said to me, won't see a-[E7] -nother one
And then he [A] sang a song, the "Rare Old [D] Mountain Dew."
I turned my [A] face away and
[D] dreamed a-[E7] -bout [A] you. [E7]

Part 1b

[E7] Got on a [A] lucky one; came in eight-[D]-teen to one. I've got a [A] feeling this year's for [E7] me and you. So happy [A] Christmas. I love you, [D] Baby. I can see a [A] better time when [D] all our [E7] dreams come [A] true. [E7]

Part 2:

[E7] They've got [A] cars big as [E7] bars. They've got [F#m] rivers of [D] gold.
But the [A] wind goes right through you.
It's no place for the [E7] old.
When you [A] first took my [F#m] hand on a
[A] cold Christmas [D] Eve
You [A] promised me Broadway was
[E7] waiting for [A] me. [E7]

Part 3a

[E7] You were [A] handsome. You were pretty, Queen of New York [E7] City. When the [A] band finished playing they howled out for [E7] more. Si- [A] -natra was swinging. All the drunks they were [E7] singing. We [A] kissed in the [D] corner,

Chorus:

The [D] boys of the NY [F#m] PD [E7] choir were [A] singing Galway [F#m] Bay And the [A] bells were [D] ringing [E7] out for Christmas [A] Day. [E7]

then [E7] danced through the [A] night. [E7]

Instrumental Chorus:

The [D] boys of the NY [F#m] PD [E7] choir were [A] singing Galway [F#m] Bay And the [A] bells were [D] ringing [E7] out for Christmas [A] Day. [E7]

[E7] You're a [A] bum. You're a punk.

Part 3b

You're an old slut on [E7] junk, Lying [A] there almost dead on a drip in that [E7] bed. You [A] scumbag, you maggot, you cheap lousy [E7] faggot, Happy [A] Christmas your [D] arse; I pray [E7] God it's our [A] last. [E7]

Chorus:

The [D] boys of the NY [F#m] PD [E7] choir, still [A] singing Galway [F#m] Bay, And the [A] bells are [D] ringing [E7] out for Christmas [A] Day. [E7]

Part 1c:

[E7] I could have [A] been someone. Well so could [D] anyone. You took my [A] dreams from me when I first [E7] found you. I kept them [A] with me babe. I put them [D] with my own. Can't make it [A] all alone. I've built my

[D] dreams a-[E7] -round [A] you. [E7]

Chorus:

The [D] boys of the NY [F#m] PD [E7] choir, still [A] singing Galway [F#m] Bay, And the [A] bells are [D] ringing [E7] out for Christmas [A] Day. [E7]

Instrumental Chorus:

The [D] boys of the NY [F#m] PD [E7] choir were [A] singing Galway [F#m] Bay And the [A] bells were [D] ringing [E7] out for Christmas [A] Day.
